

Memorandum of Mutual Cooperation between China Law Society and the Association of the Bars of Morocco

On the principles of independence, peace and friendship, equality and cooperation, common development, China Law Society and the Association of the Bars of Morocco:

1. The two parties agree to establish and keep a long-term friendly cooperative relationship for the friendship and understanding of legal professionals of the two countries.
2. On a reciprocal basis, the two parties will exchange delegations to visit each other and the inviting party shall provide necessary assistance.
3. The two parties will conduct various kinds of exchange activities including study tours, training programs, seminars and joint research projects, etc.
4. The two parties will frequently exchange related information, materials and publications.

This Memorandum of Mutual Cooperation is signed on May 22, 2009 in Rabat, and will become effective immediately. It will remain valid until either party requests its termination in writing to the other.

Han Zhubin
President
China Law Society

M'barak Taib Sassi
President
Association of the Bars of Morocco

